

LYING WOMAN OF THE MONTH

Caroline Criado-Perez

Justice for men & boys (and the women who love them)¹ presents the May 2014 Lying Woman of the Month award to Caroline Criado-Perez for refusing to apologise for, or to retract, a demonstrably false claim she made when calling into a BBC Three Counties Radio show in June 2013, when Mike Buchanan was being interviewed at length.² The first winner of the award was Kat Banyard, who similarly neither apologised for, nor retracted, an inaccurate claim she'd made on Channel 4 News.³ Caroline Criado-Perez's emotive responses (on Twitter) to Mike Buchanan's polite message – which he'd posted on the comment form on her website⁴ – make her the leading contender for this month's 'Whiny Woman of the Month' award. The inaugural winner of that award was the equally miserable Laura Bates, founder of The Everyday Whining Project.⁵
