

A Harpy

is presented to

Cherie Blair QC

The Anti-Feminism League is proud to present a Harpy to Cherie Blair QC, the relentlessly whining militant feminist wife of former prime minister Tony Blair. Her attempts over many years to shame 'stay at home mothers' into paid employment regardless of their own and their children's wants and needs, and her support for 'improved' gender diversity in boardrooms – regardless of the relative merits of female and male candidates for board positions – make her a worthy winner of a 'Harpy'. The image of a female vampire is taken from the cover of Feminism: the ugly truth. It represents an angry, ugly and evil ideology.
