

Whiny Feminist of the Month 'womanofthewoods'

J4MB presents the December 2014 'Whiny Feminist of the Month' award to 'womanofthewoods', who placed the following comment after a typically absurd post on the Mancheeze blog:<sup>1</sup>

Oh, and you are not allowed 'not to conform.' It's not an option. You have a target on your forehead. You cannot escape. Even death may not be an escape because some pervert is going to comment on your body on the autopsy table and rape your corpse. Non-conformity is not an option. You ARE what they say YOU ARE. You have no choice. This is NOT a 'privilege'.

The woman clearly suffers from Feminist Personality Disorder, an unfortunate amalgam of a number of mental health disorders, usually including Narcissistic Personality Disorder,<sup>2</sup> persecutory delusions,<sup>3</sup> and victim mentality.<sup>4</sup> We hope 'womanofthewoods' seeks psychiatric help – for her own sake, and for others.
