

GORMLESS FEMINIST OF THE MONTH

Kate Stevenson

J4MB presents the March 2015 'Gormless Feminist of the Month' award to Kate Stevenson, for an article¹ she wrote for the 'Shout Out' website. Predictably, the article contains many misleading assertions. She deserves this award for the following alone:

J4MB creates a pernicious dichotomy between men's rights and women's rights, a dichotomy which is not only erroneous but also damaging to all involved. How would they respond, we wonder, if reminded that it was feminists who campaigned for the law to recognise female-on-male rape?

How would J4MB respond? By pointing out that feminists were responsible for drafting the Sexual Offences Act 2003, which defined rape as an offence only men can commit.
