

Caroline Criado-Perez

GORMLESS FEMINIST OF THE MONTH

J4MB presents the March 2016 Gormless Feminist of the Month award to Caroline Criado-Perez, one of three awards she's won this month in recognition of her gormless letter to Boris Johnson, and her associated petition, demanding 'a statue of a suffragette in Parliament Square to mark 100 years of female suffrage'. Her letter starts with her revelation of a shocking fact:

There are eleven statues in Parliament Square. Not a single one is of a woman.

CC-P won this award because it's a matter of historical record that the Suffragettes delayed female emancipation.<sup>1</sup> Anyone wishing to understand the truth about the Suffragettes and the history of male and female emancipation – half the men killed and maimed in the trenches in World War I, 10 years before female emancipation, had no vote – should read articles by Herbert Purdy and William Collins.

In addition to this award, CC-P has won three Lying Feminist of the Month awards, two Whiny Feminist of the Month awards, and a Toxic Feminist of the Month award. She's the gift that keeps on giving.

---

<sup>1</sup> Steve Moxon (2008), The Woman Racket (Imprint Academic)