GORMLESS FEMINIST OF THE MONTH

J4MB presents a Gormless Feminist of the Month award (April 2016) to Emma Thompson, actress. She wrote a letter to The Guardian which included several self-nominations for this award, including the following gems:

I am backing the Women's Equality party because I really do not want to die before closing the pay gap, which stands, in our great and supposedly modern capital city, at 23%. We keep being told that closing it is very 'complicated'. Why?

I am backing it, too, because I am shocked that 85% of young women in London are sexually harassed every day.

The leader of the Women's Equality party is Sophie Walker, the spokeswoman Sandy Toxic (née Toksvig). Both of them have won two Lying Feminist of the Month awards to date. We're huge fans of the party. They've distilled so much feminist idiocy in one organization, that ever more people are finally recognizing feminism for what it is – a drive for ever more female privileging. Thanks, ladies!
