Dear Ms Saunders,

I lead the only political party in the English-speaking world campaigning for the human rights of men and boys on many fronts. The CPS has become ever more hostile towards men since your appointment – the prosecution of Mark Pearson for alleged sexual assault of a 60-something actress at Waterloo station being only one example of that hostility – and we've posted numerous blog pieces about you and the actions of the CPS. Last month we presented you with our Toxic Feminist of the Month award.¹ Other winners of the award include Vera Baird, Jess Phillips MP, Dame Sally Davies, and Julie Bindel.

On 20 September 2015 I posted a letter to you (attached) and have never received an acknowledgement. For some time I've been posting blog pieces weekly about the lack of a response, the latest one² pointing out your response is now 22 weeks overdue. On many occasions I've emailed your FOI unit, pointing them to the posts, with no response.

I look forward to a response shortly. Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Mike Buchanan
PARTY LEADER
