

Sophie Walker

GORMLESS FEMINIST OF THE MONTH

J4MB presents the April 2016 Gormless Feminist of the Month award to Sophie Walker, leader of the Women's Equality Party. On 7 April, 2016, the party posted an outrageously misandrous, sexist and racist video on its website, in support of Ms Walker's bid to be elected London Mayor on 5 May. It wasn't long before the video was attracting a large number of comments and votes. On 17 April we posted a blog piece linking to the video, pointing out it had attracted 4,081 views, 42 upvotes, 375 downvotes, and 128 comments, nearly all critical of the piece. For much of the time the 'Top Comment' – and therefore the first seen by people visiting the website – was one posted by Mike Buchanan, with a link to the Lying Feminist of the Month awards won by both Ms Walker and Sandi Toxic (née Toksvig), the party's spokeswoman (two apiece, so far, surely more to come).

On 22 April, the comments and votes were deleted and disabled, and remain so – here. The party is opposed to freedom of speech and voting, and therefore democracy. This award is presented in recognition of the presumed belief by Ms Walker and her equally gormless colleagues that nobody would take the trouble to archive the site, showing comments and votes. Happily, she was wrong. The day after we posted our blog piece, an MRA archived this.

A full list of our Gormless Feminists of the Month award winners is here. We also present awards to Whiny Feminists of the Month and Toxic Feminists of the Month.
