The letter also states that previously, J4MB has "engaged in harassment of members of the University, and there is a credible threat that members of the University will be subjected to further harassment". In particular the group is noted as having harassed "students, members of staff, and societies at Cambridge, including [...] a number of Cambridge academics".

This is utter nonsense, and libellous. Please provide us all with evidence to substantiate your claims (hint - you won't find any). Nobody is in the slightest risk of harassment or any other negative things from anyone connected with J4MB, including our supporters.

Elizabeth Hobson looks forward to taking on "The history of feminism", while I look forward to speaking on "Equal rights for men and women" 6pm - 8pm, 24 May, registration from 5pm. We look forward to the event.

Have a nice day,
Mike Buchanan

On the right side of the page, there is an advertisement for "Born Before 1973?" featuring two passport images and a call to action: "People Born Between 1963 & 1973 Are Now Rushing To Get This Free Quote For £10pm." The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 14:25 on 25/04/2019.
