

Barry Wright

Justice for Men & Boys (and the women who love them) is pleased to present a Winston award to Barry Wright, a men's rights advocate from Norwich, for his generosity in investing over £10,000 on two screenings of The Red Pill, an important documentary on men's issues, over 18/19 January, 2017. Tickets were made available to the public at no cost. Four cinemas in Norwich cancelled screenings, following protests from people who hadn't watched the film.

Barry covered the costs of travel and accommodation for five guests (Cassie Jaye, Paul Elam, Erin Pizzey, Mike Buchanan, DoctorRandomercam) who attended the screenings and engaged in a professionally recorded hour-long Q&A session, along with three feminists.