Whiny Woman of the Month

J4MB <http://j4mb.org.uk> presents the January 2014 Whiny Woman of the Month award to Ellie Slee, a contributor to the Huffington Post. She wins it not only for her whiny articles, but also for being typical of gender feminists by refusing to retract a false allegation. In a recent Huffington Post article she alleged that J4MB refers to women as ‘gestational incubators’. We don’t. Ms Slee’s now a member of The Whine Club, and will remain one unless she publicly retracts her false allegation. We expect her to remain a member of the club for life.
