

MB comments on Julie Bindel piece on Unherd 231012

U

Mike Buchanan

54 minutes ago

The opening sentence of this piece:

"Trans activists all too often act as the militia wing of the men's rights movement."

Absolute garbage, as we'd reliably expect from Bindel. I've been involved for 15 years in the movement and have never encountered any trans activists, nor heard of any existing in the movement.

For the source of trans ideology we need only look to feminists themselves. Professor Janice Fiamengo has written extensively on feminism and feminists, and a good place to start on feminism and the trans issue would be her article "Anti-trans Feminists Are Now Reaping the Whirlwind":

https://fiamengofile.substack.com/p/anti-trans-feminists-are-now-reaping?utm_source=profile&utm_medium=reader2

Elizabeth Hobson <https://j4mb.org.uk/elizabeth-hobson-2-2/> and I know all about feminist attempts to cancel events. In 2019 Cambridge University feminist 'academics', students and others did all in their power to stop us giving talks. The highlight of the day was possibly Natty Raymond, a supporter, running after and apprehending the feminist who threw a milkshake over us. Enjoy:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s5epds6bs4M>

It's difficult not to be amused by Bindel's claims to be "cancelled". For many years she's had articles regularly published by the mainstream media including so-called "right-leaning" publications such as The Spectator (50+ articles to date) and the Daily Mail. If this is what being cancelled looks like, MRAs would love to be cancelled.

Mike Buchanan

JUSTICE FOR MEN & BOYS

<http://j4mb.org.uk>

1

REPLY

Edit

RO

R Wright

2 hours ago

Had to stop reading at the first sentence. The author truly is a revolting person on occasion.

0

REPLY

U

Mike Buchanan

37 minutes ago

Reply to R Wright

A good point, well made. The words "on occasion" are superfluous, however.

0

REPLY

Edit

U

Chris Maille

3 hours ago

unherd.com/the-post/why-did-trans-activists-try-to-shut-down-my-feminist-event/

Search

Share

Star

Print

Zoom

Fullscreen

Profile

More

Type here to search

Taskbar icons: File Explorer, Edge, Word, PowerPoint, Outlook, Teams, OneDrive, etc.

System tray: 18°C Cloudy, 10:21, 13/10/2023

The opening sentence of this piece:

"Trans activists all too often act as the militia wing of the men's rights movement."

Absolute garbage, as we'd reliably expect from Bindel. I've been involved for 15 years in the movement and have never encountered any trans activists, nor heard of any existing in the movement.

For the source of trans ideology we need only look to feminists themselves. Professor Janice Fiamengo has written extensively on feminism and feminists, and a good place to start on feminism and the trans issue would be her article "Anti-trans Feminists Are Now Reaping the Whirlwind":

https://fiamengofile.substack.com/p/anti-trans-feminists-are-now-reaping?utm_source=profile&utm_medium=reader2

Elizabeth Hobson <https://j4mb.org.uk/elizabeth-hobson-2-2/> and I know all about feminist attempts to cancel events. In 2019 Cambridge University feminist 'academics', students and others did all in their power to stop us giving talks. The highlight of the day was possibly Natty Raymond, a supporter, running after and apprehending the feminist who threw a milkshake over us. Enjoy:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=s5epds6bs4M>

It's difficult not to be amused by Bindel's claims to be "cancelled". For many years she's had articles regularly published by the mainstream media including so-called "right-leaning" publications such as The Spectator (50+ articles to date) and the Daily Mail. If this is what being cancelled looks like, MRAs would love to be cancelled.

Mike Buchanan

JUSTICE FOR MEN & BOYS

<http://j4mb.org.uk>