Folk-Dancers Help—The St. Peter's Moravian Folk Dance Class held a successful county dance party at the St. Michaels dance party at the St. Michaels church on Saturday night. More than 50 dancers were present, and the programme was arranged by Miss C. Dongett, who acted as MC. The pianist was Miss F. White. A profit of £2 3s. was made, and the Secretary (Miss B. Emery) was able to hand £1 1s. 6d. to the Bedfordshire Times & Standard Prisoner-of-War Fund and £1 is 6d. to the Guild of the

The Treasurer's report showed that income was being maintained at a satisfactory level and good reserves were being built up ready for the election campaigns which would have to be fought in the future. Plans of the Party for 1944 included the arrangement of discussion group meetings, open to all members, the first subject to be discussed being "Women Police."

Mr. Warren, who presided was re-elected Chairman for 1944.

Born in Singapore, Miss Harrington was 23 years of age. She was educated at Bedford High School, later attending the Gloucestershire Training College of Domestic Science where she gained her Teacher's Diploma. She then became a teacher of Domestic Science at Silver Jubilee School, Bedford resigning about a year ago to take up more active war service. Miss Harrington's first two flying lessons at the age of 14

Born at St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, she was the second daughter of Michael Rowland O'Maley and Gertrude Bertha, his wife. She was educated at the Boston Latin School, where she was Head Girl for a year, and, gaining a leaving scholarship, passed to Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford. She was a mistress at the Whalley Range High School for 36 years. She was a regular attendant at St. Paul's Church, and took a keen interest in church activities. A Requiem service took place on the morning of 3rd March, and the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. A. St. G. Colthurst (Vicar) of the parish. Mrs. W. H. Coy carried out the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Millard leaves her husband, Mr. Arthur William Millard, and two sons and two daughters: Arthur Charles Millard, of 47 Beaconfield Street, Bedford; William Frederick Millard, of 16 Deacon Avenue, Kempston; Mrs. Nellie Elizabeth Loxly, of 8 Deacon Avenue, Kempston; and Gladys Lavinia Millard, of 360 Goldington Road, Bedford.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

... naturally, conspicuously and inexpensively.

... and you'll jump out of the morning full of vim and vigour

... should pour out two pints of bile flowing freely, your food doesn't rot in your stomach. You get constipation, the whole system is poisoned and the world looks

... help a little, but a mere bowel movement won't get at the cause. It takes two pints of bile flowing freely, yet amazing in making you feel "up and up."

... earned. Dividends are shown net instead of "gross" for 1942. Net profit, after undisclosed taxation, was £285,411.

The report says "although the results are difficult to compare, the net result is that the profit on the year after taxation is £1,093 less than last year."

Final deferred dividend of 6½ p.c. maintains the year's rate at 8 p.c. for the fourth successive year.
