
WELCOME YVETTE COOPER

The Forum has welcomed the appointment of former home and foreign secretary Yvette Cooper as Health Secretary in the new government.

Yvette is long-term friend to men's health. We first interviewed for our website and journal back in the 20th century! Let's hope that we the men's health strategy implemented in a meaningful and, for the men (and women) of the UK, a life-changing way. We're confident that she won't take her eye off the ball.
